Dear Shantanu,

We'll make this quick—the Internet Archive needs your help.

You're among the one in a thousand generous users who choose to donate, funding our essential work. Will you renew your donation this Thursday to support this crucial digital resource?

CHIP IN TODAY

We build and maintain our own infrastructure. This independence allows us to sustainably safeguard the public texts, video, audio, images, and more of our 145+ unique petabytes of data, without interference from external corporations. Our generous patrons make this unique approach possible.

We've long been an indispensable resource for researchers, students, journalists, and curious citizens everywhere, but the cost of maintenance continually increases. As we expand our systems to ensure tens of millions can access the Internet Archive, we depend on the support of our users to guarantee longevity.

Here's how you can help.

We believe that our collections should always be free for everyone, which is why we don't charge for access, sell user data, or run ads. We rely on the generosity of individuals like you, with contributions averaging $15, to keep our systems running.

If you've found our services useful, please consider renewing or increasing your donation to help us build the web we deserve. We understand if you can't afford to contribute, but we promise it will be well spent if you can. Together, we can continue advancing Universal Access to All Knowledge.

Thank you for joining us.

Ketamine Therapy in Idaho | Ketamine therapy in Idaho has come a long way since it started. Initially used as an anesthetic for surgeries, this powerful medication is showing it may be useful for depression and anxiety. Dear Shantanu,

We'll make this quick—the Internet Archive needs your help.

You're among the one in a thousand generous users who choose to donate, funding our essential work. Will you renew your donation this Thursday to support this crucial digital resource?

CHIP IN TODAY

We build and maintain our own infrastructure. This independence allows us to sustainably safeguard the public texts, video, audio, images, and more of our 145+ unique petabytes of data, without interference from external corporations. Our generous patrons make this unique approach possible.

We've long been an indispensable resource for researchers, students, journalists, and curious citizens everywhere, but the cost of maintenance continually increases. As we expand our systems to ensure tens of millions can access the Internet Archive, we depend on the support of our users to guarantee longevity.

Here's how you can help.

We believe that our collections should always be free for everyone, which is why we don't charge for access, sell user data, or run ads. We rely on the generosity of individuals like you, with contributions averaging $15, to keep our systems running.

If you've found our services useful, please consider renewing or increasing your donation to help us build the web we deserve. We understand if you can't afford to contribute, but we promise it will be well spent if you can. Together, we can continue advancing Universal Access to All Knowledge.

Thank you for joining us.

: Important mainly because it was sent directly to you.

Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies.

We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Thanks,

Financial Ombudsman Service

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 8 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6167

SLOUGH

SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months. Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

I drew attention of Stripe and the Financial Ombudsman as linked here:

Dear Ombudsman

Thank you for your email sent to me on the 24th of October 2024 as attached:

FrFinancialOmbudsmanService(Complaint against Stripe Registration)24Oct.2024.

After three and half months of a considerable amount of correspondence that took place between Stripe and myself, it would still not budge on the following outcome:

At 12.20 pm this Sunday the 27 of October 2024, I checked on the verification status of the Conservative Libertarian Publicaitons Limited through the Membership Account in JOIN IT Finance/Payout and Contact Support, and it remains unchanged, as follows:

What do you need help with?

Your current verification status is:

The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited

We can no longer support your business

After conducting a further review of your account we've determined that we will no longer be able to accept payments on your account moving forward.

You were notified of the reason why your account was closed via the email address that you have registered with Stripe.

If you believe that we've misunderstood or miscategorized your business and would like us to conduct another review of your account, complete the form linked in the email that will direct you to your Stripe Dashboard to provide more information about your business.

If your business is on our Restricted Business list, it is unlikely we will be able to accept payments for you. We will not consider any illegal products or services. Visit the Restricted Business list FAQ for more information.

Stripe SupportProhibited and Restricted Businesses List — FAQs

Did this help solve your issue?

I did not answer the question as there has been no explanation on why I cannot get my potential Members to join TCLRP-UK at the Political Party's website <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclrp-uk/> where the JOIN button employed returns a Contact disabled message.

As far as I know TCLRP-UK is not a proscribed political party in the United Kingdom unless the Financial Ombudsman knows differently. Stripe has refused to answer this question. So Stripe has not provided me with any explanation for the status quo with regard to the full functioning of this website.

By copy if this email to Stripe I am submitting my formal letter of complaint that you require.

As also required by the Financial Ombudsman I submit here the consent for the Ombudsman to proceed with the official consideration of the complaint using the words given to me in your email, as follows:

"I would like the Financial Ombudsman Service to look into my complaint. I confirm to the best of my knowledge everything I have told you is correct."

I look forward to your assessment of this complaint as soon as possible so that I know once and for all whether TCLRP-UK is an accredited political party in the United Kingdom for democratic activities including the contesting of elections to the House of Commons and in the local Councils up and down the country for political representation.

Yours sincerely

Hi Shantanu. I find your conservative libertarian ideology intriguing. I actually thought the woke culture has destroyed all conservative values in the west. How have you been able to maintain your principles in the face of pervasive losses in recent decades?

Over the past 26 years, and I have banked with Barclays for over 40 years, many issues came up, that I could not understand being a very busy person so had cause to refer Barclays Bank and Barclaycard to the Financial Ombudsman for investigation. I am pleased to say that in this day and age we should not be surprised at fraudulent activities by criminals in our Bank Accounts. I am putting it all down to experience and withdraw my complaints to the FOS against Barclays and Barclaycard as not worth wasting time and resources of the State over, if you agree. Completed a 25 questions-based feedback survey in a positive way.

Dear Sir

I have been plagued with fraudulent activities for years in the guise of business opportunities being brought my way which my party TCLRP-UK is intent on eradicating from the United Kingdom, as for example the attached correspondence that is a trap on me from Google which I resisted by replying as in the attached: ToGoogle Boost Your SEO(There are no errors the are just the way I like them to be-Get It)3Nov2024.docx.

We at the TCLRP-UK conduct 'karma in sanatan dharma' as vigilantes to identify corruption of the legal, business and other institutional structures that affect the governing of the United Kingdom, and your way of dealing with what could also be a trap for me that I would try to avoid falling into personally but since it constitutes an issue of national significance that should be reported to the Police and published in the Court of Public Opinion by The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited as we go through THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS to strengthen our community of whistleblowers it is incumbent upon me to give you an opportunity to deny any wrongdoing on your part. This can be done by you immediately donating to our TCLS here: <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclrp-uk/>

By copy of this email to our local Police Constabulary I am taking this initial step to supplement the proceedings linked here:

I have 26 websites charting my search for the truth in an exploration of Reality. but The are on going developments rather than a final definitive charter or policy statement. I am still studying what would work in the United Kingdom if we do not have a written Constitution. It is all so very complex. Essentially my experiences prove that the common man has next to no access to Justice and there is very structured democracy. We need Libertarian Democracy where small parties have a decent chance of getting representation.

This was the final straw that led me to consider that the Monarchical Establishment of the United Kingdom had tampered with my membership of the Liberal Democrats fearing that I would bring Conservative Libertarian values and its ethos and principles of truth, justice and democracy into the party so that it would gain ascendancy in the House of Commons and elsewhere in the country.

If the Liberal Democrats have me back, there would be no reason for the existence of TCLRP-UK, but the red line for me is that we in the United Kingdom must have a written Constitution if the present system of democracy is to be maintained. This question is vital to tackle corruption at the highest levels of the State. I sounded all the major parties: see here:

<https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/post/cross-party-support-for-a-written-constitution-in-the-united-kingdom> and got no replies. The option to submit a Petition to the Petitions

Committee of the House of Commons is something that I attempted before the general election of 4 July 2024, but the Committee has not been reconvened following the new Parliament that came into being. I am waiting for this reopening of the Petitions Committee to decide my next step.(Edited)

Hello Emeka again,

It was a rewarding exchange of views, and I am utterly pleased that you wish to be part of the The Conservative Libertarian Society at its offshoot, The Conservative Libertarian and Republican Party of the United Kingdom.

After some deliberation I am minded to test the waters by standing as a candidate at the next local council elections in my area as representing TCLRP-UK. But I have been a one-man band and despite searching with over 2400 LinkedIn connections, you are the first person who has voiced that we have common grounds and interests.

I have already had the Party partly registered with the Electoral Commission, but need minimum of 10 members to get final clearance from the Commission to contest elections. If you would consider giving me your email address, I can do this at the Membership link:

<https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclrp-uk/>

If you also know of others interested in following this line of progression in democracy within the United Kingdom, kindly let them know what my present needs above are so that they can also add their names to the TCLRP-UK Team.

I am not trying to secure donations or membership fees at this time, and will simply add the names to the Membership website manually as long as they are also convinced.

I changed the title of the Party to TCLP-UK everywhere as it is not attractive to have the Republican word so prominently in the marketing of the proposal to establish the Party in the United Kingdom; and it is not a fully fledged Republican movement, rather a Cultural monarch-based development where a hereditary Royal family exists.

Mark,

Upon further review I would just like to clarify that I changed the title of the Party to TCLP-UK everywhere in my websites as it is not attractive to have the Republican word so prominently in the marketing of the proposal to establish the Party in the United Kingdom; and it is not a fully-ledged Republican movement, rather a Cultural monarch-based development where a hereditary Royal family will always exist.

As such, would you accept the Role of Recruitment Manager to TCLP-UK?

Over the past 26 years, and I have banked with Barclays for over 40 years, many issues came up, that I could not understand being a very busy person so had cause to refer Barclays Bank and Barclaycard to the Financial Ombudsman for investigation. I am pleased to say that in this day and age we should not be surprised at fraudulent activities by criminals in our Bank Accounts. I am putting it all down to experience and withdraw my complaints to the FOS against Barclays and Barclaycard as not worth wasting time and resources of the State over, if you agree.

Completed a 25 questions-based feedback survey in a positive way.

Hi Shantanu. I find your conservative libertarian ideology intriguing. I actually thought the woke culture has destroyed all conservative values in the west. How have you been able to maintain your principles in the face of pervasive losses in recent decades?

I have 26 websites charting my search for the truth in an exploration of Reality. but these were on going developments rather than a final definitive charter or policy statement. I am still studying what would work in the United Kingdom if we do not have a written Constitution. It is all so very complex. Essentially my experiences prove that the common man has next to no access to Justice and there is very structured democracy. We need Libertarian Democracy where small parties have a decent chance of getting representation.

I agree with those libertarian values you espoused. May I appeal you notify me when a functional document is available. Given the imperfections of the current prevailing left and right wings, i am convinced your party will offer the requisite balance and create better outcomes if their provisions are implemented on the national level.

This was the final straw that led me to consider that the Monarchical Establishment of the United Kingdom had tampered with my membership of the Liberal Democrats fearing that I would bring Conservative Libertarian values, ethos and principles of truth, justice and democracy into the party so that it would gain ascendancy in the House of Commons and elsewhere in the country.

If the Liberal Democrats have me back, there would be no reason for the existence of TCLRP-UK, but the red line for me is that we in the United Kingdom must have a written Constitution if the present system of democracy is to be maintained. This question is vital to tackle corruption at the highest levels of the State. I sounded all the major parties: see here:

<https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/post/cross-party-support-for-a-written-constitution->

in-the-united-kingdom and got no replies. The option to submit a Petition to the Petitions Committee of the House of Commons is something that I attempted before the general election of 4 July 2024, but the Committee has not been reconvened following the new Parliament that came into being. I am waiting for this reopening of the Petitions Committee to decide my next step.(Edited)

Hello Emeka again,

It was a rewarding exchange of views, and I am utterly pleased that you wish to be part of the The Conservative Libertarian Society at its offshoot, The Conservative Libertarian and Republican Party of the United Kingdom.

After some deliberation I am minded to test the waters by standing as a candidate at the next local council elections in my area as representing TCLRP-UK. But I have been a one-man band and despite searching with over 2400 LinkedIn connections, you are the first person who has voiced that we have common grounds and interests.

I have already had the Party partly registered with the Electoral Commission, but need minimum of 10 members to get final clearance from the Commission to contest elections. If you would consider giving me your email address, I can do this at the Membership link:

<https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclrp-uk/>

If you also know of others interested in following this line of progression in democracy within the United Kingdom, kindly let them know what my present needs above are so that they can also add their names to the TCLRP-UK Team.

I am not trying to secure donations or membership fees at this time, and will simply add the names to the Membership website manually as long as they are also convinced.

Arguments for a Written Constitution for the United Kingdom
in TCLP-UK proceedings

PETITION FOR A WRITTEN CONSTITUTION IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

(Working Draft 19.45 pm 13 July 2024)

An Unwritten Constitution should not be foisted upon the people: it is wrong morally.

The reason that there is no written Constitution in the United Kingdom is that Monarchists within the State facilitate the Monarchy to become dictatorial from time to time during the course of history which would be fine if that is what the majority of the population actually wish but it should be explicitly documented into a Written Constitution. People are then fully informed on what to expect from the government that they live under. In ancient times people lived entirely in servitude so that rulers ruled as they pleased. The concept of the Written Constitution marked the beginning of civilisation.

The most useful benefit from a change from the unwritten to a written Constitution will be that it would prevent the Head of State from discharging his or her duties secretly from behind the scenes away from the public eye. The role of the Constitutional Head of State from the existing Royal Family remains unclear to this day and what is also unknown is whether the Monarch can be dethroned, or impeached in Parliament for failure to adhere to his or her duties in a moral and legal manner and what those norms should be.

Parliament's Select Committee for Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs (PACAS) should be charged with formulating these constitutional clarifications and the appropriate document for voting in both the Chambers of Parliament on whether the Monarch should have absolute unlimited powers or it should be limited as a Cultural Monarchy.

The Written Constitution must clearly outline the relationship between the Ceremonial Head of State and the Parliament at both House of Commons and the House of Lords and its connections with the Security Services that is not exclusively the Constabulary but includes MI5/MI6.

The Written Constitution should then be put to a Yes/No referendum of the population; and if there is a Yes decision from the electorate to have a Written Constitution it should be enacted in Parliament with provisions made that all subsequent amendments to the Written Constitution when these take place are through Parliamentary approval first and then must go to another referendum of the population.

The objective of the Written Constitution is therefore to keep people better informed on who is in charge of procedures of the House of Commons and of the House of Lords, what the functions of the Consultant Psychiatrists, Chief Constables of Police Forces are and who are the officials in secondary institutions of the State against whom a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts of the United Kingdom.

This discussion about a written constitution in the UK is quite thought-provoking! Establishing clear guidelines for governance can certainly enhance transparency and accountability. Similarly, religious texts like Surah Al-Infitar (سورة الانفطار مكتوبة كاملة بالتشكيل) provide essential insights and guidance for believers, emphasizing the importance of clarity and structure in both legal and spiritual matters.

My petition:

Develop an official written Constitution in the United Kingdom for governance.

An unwritten Constitution foisted upon the people is wrong morally. A written Constitution is needed that outlines the relationships between the Head of State and Parliament at both Houses and in terms of their inter-connections with the Security Services, Judicial and other State institutions.

Unwritten Constitution makes a Monarchical Establishment to become secretly dictatorial and tyrannical to selected individuals and groups. With a written constitution people are fully informed on what to expect from the State and what is expected of them to the State. With a written Constitution people will be fully informed on who is in charge of procedures in Parliament, Mental Health Institutions, Security Services; and who a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts.

I have 26 websites charting my search for the truth in an exploration of Reality. but These are on going developments rather than a final definitive charter or policy statement. I am still studying what would work in the United Kingdom if we do not have a written Constitution. It is all so very complex. Essentially my experiences prove that the common man has next to no access to Justice and there is very structured democracy. We need Libertarian Democracy where small parties have a decent chance of getting representation.

This was the final straw that led me to consider that the Monarchical Establishment of the United Kingdom had tampered with my membership of the Liberal Democrats fearing that I would bring Conservative Libertarian values its ethos and principles of truth, justice and democracy into the party so that it would gain ascendancy in the House of Commons and elsewhere in the country.

If the Liberal Democrats have me back, there would be no reason for the existence of TCLRP-UK, but the red line for me is that we in the United Kingdom must have a written Constitution if the present system of democracy is to be maintained. This question is vital to tackle corruption at the highest levels of the State. I sounded all the major parties: see here:

<https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/post/cross-party-support-for-a-written-constitution-in-the-united-kingdom> and got no replies. The option to submit a Petition to the Petitions

Committee of the House of Commons is something that I attempted before the general election of 4 July 2024, but the Committee has not been reconvened following the new Parliament that came into being. I am waiting for this reopening of the Petitions Committee to decide my next step.(Edited)

Hello Emeka again,

It was a rewarding exchange of views, and I am utterly pleased that you wish to be part of the The Conservative Libertarian Society at its offshoot, The Conservative Libertarian and Republican Party of the United Kingdom.

After some deliberation I am minded to test the waters by standing as a candidate at the next local council elections in my area as representing TCLRP-UK. But I have been a one-man band and despite searching with over 2400 LinkedIn connections, you are the first person who has voiced that we have common grounds and interests.

I have already had the Party partly registered with the Electoral Commission, but need minimum of 10 members to get final clearance from the Commission to contest elections. If you would consider giving me your email address, I can do this at the Membership link:

<https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclrp-uk/>

If you also know of others interested in following this line of progression in democracy within the United Kingdom, kindly let them know what my present needs above are so that they can also add their names to the TCLRP-UK Team.

I am not trying to secure donations or membership fees at this time, and will simply add the names to the Membership website manually as long as they are also convinced.

Thank you for your response.

I look forward to hearing from you later today as this website <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclrp-uk/> needs to be fully functional for the needs of TCLRP-UK and The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited.

This is not a matter for the Financial Ombudsman nor of the Courts as I have taken great lengths of correspondence to determine this fact, as you will note from the attachment ToCentralLondonCountyCourt(CASE PROGRESSIONE35YM660)28Oct2024.pdf.

This means that if Stripe does not remove the current restrictions, I will continue with the work of The Conservative Libertarian Society within your stipulated requirements.

Yours sincerely

Dear Stripe

I just logged into Stripe Account to see if there has been any change to the verification status of The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited; through JOIN IT Finance/Payout facility, and it is still unchanged:

What do you need help with?

Your current verification status is:

After conducting a further review of your account we've determined that we will no longer be able to accept payments on your account moving forward.

You were notified of the reason why your account was closed via the email address that you have registered with Stripe.

If you believe that we've misunderstood or miscategorized your business and would like us to conduct another review of your account, complete the form linked in the email that will direct you to your Stripe Dashboard to provide more information about your business.

I think the new Prime Minister should get off his backside and attend to real problems that people face in the country with crime and inactive Police and Judicial authorities to punish them, as you will find if you read this attached communication:

Dear Sir

I have been plagued with fraudulent activities for years in the guise of business opportunities being brought my way which my party TCLP-UK is intent on eradicating from the United Kingdom, as for example the attached correspondence that is a trap on me from Google which I resisted by replying as in the attached: ToGoogle Boost Your SEO(There are no errors the are just the way I like them to be-Get It)3Nov2024.docx.

We at the TCLP-UK conduct 'karma in sanatana dharma' as vigilantes to identify corruption of the legal, business and other institutional structures that affect the governing of the United Kingdom, and your way of dealing with what could also be a trap for me that I would try to avoid falling into personally but since it constitutes an issue of national significance that should be reported to the Police and published in the Court of Public Opinion by The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited as we go through THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS to strengthen our community of whistleblowers it is incumbent upon me to give you an opportunity to deny any wrongdoing on your part. This can be done by you immediately donating to our TCLS here: <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclp-uk/>

By copy of this email to our local Police Constabulary I am taking this initial step to supplement the proceedings linked here:

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/alert-fix-website-errors-to-improve-google-ranking> in its investigation of the crimes involved.

I look forward to your response accordingly.

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 8 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6167

SLOUGH

SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday.

Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

Update:

Several emails came in the Gmail Account but I spent the morning compiling a document 'THE BANKING SECTOR AND ITS REGULATION' as I waited for an email from the Financial Ombudsman or the Central London County Court. Once satisfied that I had enough accumulated material to fight with, I blogged the email sent to the Central London County Court to enforce the proceedings, tweeting it and posting it in United Kingdom as a Republic page of Facebook:

Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies.

We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Dear Peter

There is nothing for Tide Bank to do at this stage of the proceedings. I am toying with continuing to persevere with my <https://theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop> website for it has not yet generated any income for the Company, or setting up a new more dedicated website to market the books, now that the legal hurdles to establish the legitimacy of the Company The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited has been established with Companies House and HMRC in terms of the Corporation Tax that need to be arranged annually.

I will of course keep Tide Bank duly informed should Kent Police raise any objections to the realisation that I have arrived at.

For now you may close this thread.

Yours sincerely

Forwarded:

Logged into Stripe and after checking the Verification Status of the Company that is unchanged, raised a dispute by attaching the full correspondence with the Financial Ombudsman Service to the message, which was:

“Dear Stripe

I requested you for a comprehensive assessment that is up-to-date as matters stand now following my correspondence with the Financial Ombudsman Service as attached: (ToFinancialOmbudsmanService(Stripe Payments UK_Confidential)4Sep2024) unfortunately as I had alluded to Stripe the FOS and rest of the Court and other regulatory apparatus of the State have been attempting to cover up the dastardly crimes of the Constitutional Monarchy on me as is evident from an email that I have just received from Santander Bank that was also referred to the FOS.

How does Stripe view this latest submission in the application to have the full Stripe banking services restored to The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited?

Dear Financial Ombudsman

I am not at all very good at form filling so you would excuse me if I do not complete this latest form that you have sent me before all the preliminaries have been ascertained.

The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman is currently looking into the same matter as you will note from the attached email that I received this morning: FrPHSO (Your email to PHSO_Stripe without Reference)4Sep2024.docx.

Additionally, I have asked Olives Solicitors to determine if it has been continuing to act on my behalf over the past 18 months as attached: ToRavinaKerirOliveSolicitorsccKMPTPALS(Is Olives Solicitors Still Acting on my behalf)4Sep2024.docx.

Furthermore: the State authorities intervened today with the following two telephone calls, although it is not clear to me what was being conveyed to me with regard to this matter.

At 10.52 am, the Mobile Phone had rung from a Spam Caller dialling from 01204 311 937.

At 1.11 pm the Mobile Phone rang from a Spam Caller dialling from 020 4618 5483.

Related to this, the correspondence between Krishna and me this morning

ToKrishnaLabidiyoussef(SEORegistrationVAS_TCLS_TCLP-UK)4Sep2024.docx is very important, as you can imagine.

That is all the information that I have at this present time. I hope this is sufficient to determine that there is no duplication of investigational effort between these parties concerned about the matter in hand.

Yours sincerely

We'd like to look into what's happened and see if we can do to help. We just need some details from you first.

What we need

We need you to complete and sign the attached complaint form – and send it back to us.

Please also send us a copy of the final response you received from the business you're complaining about or evidence you've complained – and anything else you think is important to your complaint.

There's no need to send us any original documents.

If you'd like to talk through this, please give us a call on 0800 023 4567.

You can return the complaint form and any other documents to us by email at complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk, or by post.

Once we receive the signed form, we'll be in touch about what happens next.

In the meantime, you can find out more about what to expect on our website - <https://www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk/consumers/expect>.

Please reply by 2 October 2024, using the reference number above. Just so you know, we won't take the complaint any further until we hear from you.

Thank you for contacting the Financial Ombudsman Service, we are a free service set up to resolve disputes with financial businesses, like banks or insurance companies. We're helping a lot of customers at the moment, so I'm sorry we won't be able to reply straight away.

If you're contacting us about a new complaint

You can find out more about the things we can help with on our website – where you can also use our complaint checker tool to see if your complaint is one we can look at.

If we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days. Due to the volume of enquiries we receive, we are only able to reply to those customers we can help.

If you already have a complaint with us

We'll contact you once your complaint is with a case-handler.

However, if you're experiencing serious financial or health problems, or need to speak to someone urgently, please call us on 0800 023 4567.

If we are not able to help you

We can only look at complaints about financial businesses (like banks, insurance companies and finance firms). We can't help with other complaints – for example, about phone and utility companies, council tax or legal services. Please look at our website for more information about other organisations that may be able to help – but they are completely separate from the Financial Ombudsman Service

And just to remind you again, if we can help, we will get back to you within 7 days.

Thanks,

For anyone concerned about my complaints to the Financial Services Ombudsman (FOS) on its Case Reference Nos PNx-5135264-S4N6 (Barclaycard), PNx-5124101-X0CS (Barclays Bank), PNx-5135268-T1P6 (Tide Bank/ClearBank), PNx - 5135265-F6C6 (Santander Bank), PNx-5135267-Y8G6 (PayPal Bank), and PNx-5222561-R3M4 (Stripe Banking Services).

These Banks are all mixed together in conspiracy to oversee fraudulent transactions and perpetration of the terrorism of annoyance on me, as for example the link shows:

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/your-complaint-about-tide-reference-0017872> ; <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/re-petition-update-from-tide-bank-clarification>;

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/appeal-proceedings-at-the-court-of-appeal-ca-2023-000750-1>

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/tide-member-support-follow-up>

Stripe in particular has sabotaged the Membership website under false pretences that TCLP-UK is a proscribed political party and has resorted to duplicitous and deceitful emails to me, especially early this morning to obstruct justice in the Medway County Court under Claim J00ME572 so I had to ask Stripe who were aware that I had given the Financial Ombudsman the consent to investigate Stripe the linked communication:

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/re-verification-status-of-the-conservative-libertarian-publications-limited-s-stripe-account-2> There was no reply from

Stripe to this remark.

I tried to hold out an olive branch to Barclays and Barclaycard by giving Barclays a good feedback report Barclays Feedback Questionnaire:

Gave a 10 mark to Excellence/etc.

Thanks. What is working well and how could we be truly excellent?

Please type your response below. Please do not enter any personal information (e.g. name, telephone numbers, account/ card details etc.) when providing your feedback

Over the past 26 years, and I have banked with Barclays for over 40 years, many issues came up, that I could not understand being a very busy person so had cause to refer Barclays Bank and Barclaycard to the Financial Ombudsman for investigation. I am pleased to say that in this day and age we should not be surprised at fraudulent activities by criminals in our Bank Accounts. I am putting it all down to experience and withdraw my complaints to the FOS against Barclays and Barclaycard as not worth wasting time and resources of the State over, if you agree.

Completed a 25 questions-based feedback survey in a positive way. But this afternoon it resumed its terrorism of annoyance on me with the following email:

I have had to resubmit the Business Model to suit the market conditions and legalities to Stripe as attached: Fundraising Due Diligence Questionnaire Support.docx.

Apart from that I am repricing my 209 eBooks to sell; after British Library uploads them as attached: ToBritishLibrary (Have you finished uploading from Internet Archive)4Jul2024.docx

Hope for the best.

Fundraising Due Diligence Questionnaire

Why do we need a due diligence questionnaire for Fundraising users?

In highly regulated industries, Stripe will need to collect user information (outside of onboarding requirements) so that Stripe can appropriately manage the risks associated with such industries and ensure compliance with relevant regulations, banking partner requirements, and card network rules.

What do we do with the information we receive?

Risk and Legal teams within Stripe will review responses to validate that they comply with Stripe's user supportability requirements. In some cases, review teams may require clarifications or additional documentation and will follow up with additional questions.

Business Summary

Please confirm what best describes your fundraising activity

We are a political party raising funds on our own behalf.

Licensing and Regulation

Please provide a link to your online registration or a copy of the relevant documentation to demonstrate your status as a registered charity in all areas of operation

Please provide a link to your online registration:

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/blank>

Please describe your charitable activity or your business model: where do you maintain operations? (In what countries do you maintain operations)

We have developed our political party in the United Kingdom as part of the philosophy of Conservative Libertarianism, which has a unique constitution and is preparing to stand candidates in local and general elections within the United Kingdom. The Business Model having a manifesto funded by The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited that raises funds by selling its 209 published books and is registered with Companies House paying taxes to His Majesty Customs and Revenue. After obtaining 10 members the Party (TCLP-UK) will register with the Electoral Commission of the United Kingdom. We are very active in politics which has international relations in the United States of America although there are no current officials in that country

How do you raise funds? (Who do you target for donations and what countries are they based in)

Membership of Vishista Advaita Sampradaya (TCLS/TCLP-UK) and selling books through marketing techniques: <https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/blank-page-1>

How do you distribute funds/donations? (Who are your beneficiaries and what countries are they based in)

We will fund political campaigns in the United Kingdom to begin with the members that we are able to register with the TCLP-UK. We do not donate funds. Our beneficiaries will be the people of the United Kingdom whom we will serve as government once we are elected. The beneficiaries are solely based in the United Kingdom.

Please list each country from which you collect funds and serve (or plan to serve) and the approximate proportion of your revenue generated in and donated to each country. Please indicate if you have plans to expand to additional countries and when such expansion might occur.

So far we have not had any money that I have been able to collect, but we are hopeful that once our JOIN It Membership Account is up and running after the <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya-tclstclp-uk/> change we will get memberships. The target audience will be the residents and citizens of the United Kingdom only. We do not have any plans to expand into other countries.

Do you attest that you do not accept funds from, provide support to, or otherwise permit any transactions involving prohibited countries (e.g., Iran, Syria, Cuba, North Korea, and / or the Crimea, Donetsk, Luhansk regions) or persons subject to sanctions?

Yes I attest.

Dear PSD

Thank you for your letter that arrived this afternoon.

I am not an expert in law, and since the County Court of Central London adjudicating on Claim E35YM660 and the Kings Bench Division of the High Court adjudicating on HQ17X01773/J00ME572, have not ruled against Kent Police this afternoon, Kent Police must have done its work diligently and arrests were proportionate according to the present unwritten Constitution of the United Kingdom.

This is of course not ideal and I am campaigning for a Written Constitution so that so much time and resources are not wasted in the futile exercise that Kent Police undertook in reference to this Case, not to mention the undue suffering that innocent victims of crime have had to endure as in my Case.

‘The email that I copied Stripe into was an attempt to clarify the position of the Company with regard to the tentative closure of its Account at Stripe on 28 July 2028.

Stripe did not reply to my earlier email and hence I have asked the Circuit Judge at the Central London County Court adjudicating on Claim E35YM660 to rule urgently through its Duty Judge before the Account is closed by Stripe.

It is for Stripe to make its position clear today by email.

Hi Shantanu,

Considering something but don't want to pay the full amount upfront? Pay in 3 lets you split the cost in 3 manageable payments to give yourself a little extra time to repay. Plus with no fees or interest, it's as easy as 1, 2, 3.* Give it a go on your next purchase now.

Pay in 3 is an unregulated credit agreement, so you will have fewer protections under this agreement than you would under a regulated credit agreement. Carefully consider whether the purchase is affordable and how you will make the repayments. Be aware of the possible impact of using Pay in 3 and of missing payments, including making other borrowing more difficult or more expensive. You may find our Spend Smarter Guide helpful.

Dear Santander

I have been informed by Kent Police that these matters are not for Kent Police to investigate as conspiracy to terrorise, victimise, persecute, obstruct Justice, and pervert the course of justice as Santander and other Banks and legal bodies have seemingly perpetrated against me is not a crime but a civil matter to be examined by the Central London County Court in Claim E35YM660 under a newly appointed judge. I am claiming £4 million in damages and compensation.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Dear PayPal

I have a Business Account with PAYPAL under the name 'THE CONSERVATIVE LIBERTARIAN PUBLICATIONS LIMITED' operating through my shanpanigrahi3000@gmail account.

Some forces have been trying to undermine the Company through the PAYPAL transactions mechanisms and I have just extracted the particular horrifying attempt to withdraw funds as shown here, that I was forced to cancel:

Could you let me know who was behind this criminal activity please for a Hearing of the matter in North Kent Magistrates Court sitting in Medway Magistrates Court on 10 November 2023 at 2.00 pm?

In addition to this I had a couple of Bitcoin-PAYPAL emails trying to extract money from my PayPal Account that I reported to Sandra Taylor of Kent Police. Do you know anything about these too?

Yours sincerely

Inviting Friends and Earning Referral Reward Terms & Conditions

By participating in PayPal's "Invite Friends" offer (the "Programme"), you agree to the following terms and conditions ("Terms"). The Programme allows you to invite people you know to sign up for a UK account with PayPal.

You could earn a Reward (defined below) when you invite friends and family to join PayPal through the Programme and they complete an Eligible Transaction (defined below). Under these Terms, if you are the person inviting people to join PayPal you are a "referrer", and if you are a person who receives such invitation, you are a "referee".

Offer Period: The Programme starts on 10 July 2023 at 12.00 am GMT and ends on 30 Sept 2023 at 11.59 pm GMT time (the "Offer Period").

Eligible Participant: To be an eligible participant (an "Eligible Participant"), each referrer and referee must: (1) be eighteen (18) years of age or older; (2) be a resident in the UK; (3) have a UK personal PayPal account or premier PayPal account in good standing (a "Valid Account") during the Offer Period; and (4) receive an authorised invitation to participate in the Programme (eligibility for/those who receive such invitation will be determined solely by PayPal). The Programme is limited to participants on a first-come, first-served basis. The referrer can claim a maximum reward of £200 GBP (two hundred pounds) in the Offer Period for successfully referring 10 (ten) referees that satisfy the "Reward Criteria" (defined below).

How it works: A referrer may refer a referee via the referral mechanism in the PayPal app or on PayPal.com. The referrer can claim a maximum reward of £200 GBP (two hundred pounds) for a maximum of 10 (ten) referees during the Offer Period that satisfy the following "Reward Criteria": referees must (i) access and complete the PayPal sign up process; (ii) link their bank, credit card or debit card to their PayPal account; (iii) verify their mobile number linked to their PayPal account; and (iv) complete an Eligible Transaction (defined below) within the first 30 days of completing the PayPal sign up process.

Eligible Transaction: An "Eligible Transaction" means: (a) an online PayPal checkout payment of £5.00 GBP (five pounds) or more using the referee's new PayPal account that is marked as 'complete' in the referee's Valid Account; or (b) a person-to-person payment of £5.00 GBP (five pounds) or more using the "Send Money" feature within PayPal (sent to anyone other than the referrer) using the referee's Valid Account that is marked as 'received' by the recipient.

Transactions that have been cancelled, refunded, or reversed by either the referee, referrer, or the seller do not count as Eligible Transactions.

Reward: The reward amount is £20 GBP voucher (twenty pounds) (the "Reward"). Once the steps described above are completed and verified, the Reward will be made available in the Eligible Participant's Valid Account within approximately two weeks of the referee satisfying the Reward Criteria. During the Offer Period, there is a limit of (1) (one) Reward per referee Valid Account and 10 (ten) Rewards per referrer Valid Account. If two or more referrers invite the same referee, PayPal will credit the Reward to the person who first clicked on their referral link and completed the Reward Criteria, as determined in PayPal's sole discretion.

Referrals: The referrer must only refer family and personal friends and acquaintances to the Programme and must obtain their prior consent before sending the referral. You must not publish or distribute the invitation to participate in the Programme that you received from PayPal in public locations (online or otherwise) where the audience is likely to include people who are not your family or personal friends/acquaintances. You may not refer yourself to the Programme. If you do so, PayPal may disqualify you from participation in the Programme and any successful referrals will be void, in PayPal's sole discretion.

Receiving and using Reward: Once received, and qualified for, the Reward will be automatically applied the first time that the Eligible Participant checks out with PayPal using their Valid Account during the Offer Period ("Eligible Purchase"). Eligible Purchases do not include: (1) send/receive money transactions (including those marked as a "Goods and Services" payments); (2) charitable donations; (3) purchases made using PayPal.me; (4) PayPal Business Debit Mastercard® purchases made using the card directly and not through your Valid Account; (5) PayPal transaction fees; or (6) transactions made in any other currency other than pounds sterling. Rewards will be viewable in the "Offers" section of the Eligible Participant's Valid Account. The Reward does not constitute electronic money, is not deemed part of your PayPal balance, has no cash value and cannot be redeemed for cash, used to purchase gift cards or transferred out of the Eligible Participant's Valid Account. The Reward is separate and different to PayPal balance. The Reward must be redeemed during the Offer Period and may only be redeemed as described in these Terms and Conditions. Use of the Reward will be reflected on the Eligible Participant's PayPal receipt and/or in the transaction details of their Valid Account. Rewards should be visible in the "Offers" section of your Valid Account within approximately 14 days (fourteen) but may be available sooner. Rewards must be used by 31 December 2023 (the "Redemption Period").

Miscellaneous: Redemptions are final, will not be returned, and are subject to review and verification. If item(s) purchased using a Reward are returned and the Redemption Period has expired, PayPal will first refund the money spent to the payment method used to complete the Eligible Purchase and purchase amount in excess of the money spent (i.e. the value of the Reward) will not be refunded. If the Redemption Period has not expired, the value of the Reward will be returned to the Offers section of the Valid Account and will be available for use by the account holder. PayPal may provide an alternate reward of equal value if it is unable for any reason to fulfil the Reward. PayPal reserves the right to cancel, suspend or modify this offer in part or in its entirety at any time without notice, for any reason in their sole discretion. Similar offers may run at the same time; qualification for this offer does not constitute qualification for any other offer. PayPal is not responsible and/or liable for any lost, stolen, late, incomplete, illegible, interrupted, delayed, or misdirected e-mail, Reward, or offer-related materials or correspondence or if any participant's e-mail address, Valid Account, or other contact information does not work, is deleted, or is changed without participant giving prior written notice to PayPal. PayPal reserves the right to review any account or transaction related to this offer, in its sole discretion, without notice, and delay or reverse completion of the Reward. Offer is void where prohibited, if Eligible Purchases or subscription upgrades/sign-ups are not completed through legitimate channels, or if any offer-related materials are counterfeit, altered, fraudulent, defective, tampered with or irregular in any way. Participation is subject to PayPal's User Agreement. Any questions relating to the offer will be resolved in PayPal's sole discretion and its decisions related to the offer will be final and binding.

Governing law and jurisdiction: These Terms are governed by English law. By participating in the Programme, you agree to be bound by these Terms and our User Agreement. Questions relating to the Programme will be resolved in PayPal's sole discretion and its decisions related to the Programme will be final and binding.

Hello Shantanu

If you want to make your money work harder for you, consider moving money that you don't need to access regularly into an account that pays a higher rate of interest.

You can choose from a range of bonds and ISAs that offer a fixed interest rate over a fixed period of time, or flexible products that provide partial access to withdraw some of your money. The interest rate on fixed-rate products that don't allow withdrawals is typically higher than the rate on products that allow you to withdraw money at any time.

If you're unsure about your withdrawal needs, splitting balances across different products can help you achieve the right mix of interest rate and withdrawal access for you.

Mon, 19 Jun at 12:17

Dear Sirs/Madams

I have just received the initial authority of Parliament from my local Member of Parliament that the matter that I am bailed to Medway Police Station until 28 September 2023 16:00 hours, as attached: Kent Police Extended Bail.pdf might be appropriate for a Public Enquiry through a Minister of the Government as attached: Rehman Chishti.PUBLIC ENQUIRY.pdf

Given the lack of response from Molina of redforestbank.com to my attempt to secure Research Funds as shown below, I feel that my reputation remains tarnished.

In light of the lack of progress of the Emergency Judgment, followed by Summary Judgment at North Kent Magistrates Court and lack of progress in Kent Police's investigations on the matter nearly two years since this matter was handled by Kent Police to cause me further Defamation, I would like to write to the appropriate Minister today, if none of the parties to whom this email is copied to have any objections.

The Minister responsible would appear to be the Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice, Right Honourable Alex Chalk KC MP

Yours sincerely

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it could be up to 10 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6806

Wolverhampton

WV1 9WJ

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 10am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months. Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

If you are requesting personal data under Freedom of Information or the Environmental Information Regulations or would like a copy of personal data under Data Protection please email infosec@legalombudsman.org.uk

Dear Barclays

I am sorry that it was not possible for you to give me a report on a number of fraudulent activities on my Current account that I hold with my wire and the associated Debit Card over the past year and half, within the time frame that might have assisted me in securing some compensation from the fraudsters. I do not wish to name the institutions as I cannot be bothered to check these details again on account of the fact that Kent Police has taken away three of our computers, 3 USB Memory Sticks two Mobile Phones and a Amazon Fire containing these details which I am consequently unable to check now.

I would rather just forget about it all as our Accounts with Barclays is now working well and I do not wish to have to spend your resources in launching a fresh investigation. This also applies to Santander Bank and Pay Pal which had similar discrepancies relating to my financial transactions.

So unless you disagree, let us bring this matter to a conclusion: lessons have been learnt all round.

Yours sincerely

To
 Kent Police

Dear Sirs

We have been getting lots of terroristic telephone calls to our Landline and to my Mobile Phone some of which I have reported to the Court of Central London under Claim E35YM660 that may or may not be under consideration of the Judge.

This Sunday morning was exceptionally terrifying as the phone calls started at 6.51 am from 0800 151 2104, and this was followed by another from the same number at 9.50 am and to our Landline briefly, the former appeared to have left a Voicemail, but so terrified I was in my mental state as a mental patient of Britton House, I deleted the Voicemail notification immediately.

Then at 9.55 am the Mobile Phone rang again from a Suspected Spam Caller dialling from 0333 202 7461.

At 11.10 am the Landline rang: my wife picked it up and then put the phone down

At 11.11 am the Mobile Phone rang again from 0800 1512104.

I did not answer any of these Phone calls, as these could have been traps being laid on me to get me to legal difficulties in the same way as the criminal anonymous emails were sent to me and my relations and associates for a number of years and on which I await the final Report on CO/999/23, from Professional Standards Department of Kent Police.

I am at this stage trying to investigate the nature of these criminal anonymous phone calls as I am reporting them to my Consultant Psychiatrist Dr Emmanuel Oranusi immediately through KMPT.

Then the thought occurred to me, what if the Central London County Court was trying to get a message through to me or even Kent Police.

Please confirm that I was not being contacted through these phone calls by an official institution of the State of the United Kingdom in the first instance so that I then take the necessary action against the perpetrator of the Hate crimes on me and my family.

Yours sincerely

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 8 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6167

SLOUGH

SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.
